

Winter Vacation Homework
First Grade

- Read every night. It could be a card, recipe, book, story, poem, etc.
- Write a thank you letter to someone special for a special gift, time together, a treat or just because.
- Have fun with your family celebrating winter holidays together.
- Go visit your neighborhood or special places to see decorations and special holiday displays.
- Spend quiet time relaxing and talking to family and friends.
- Share special foods with family and friends.
- Go visiting and make special moments.

When you are young special moments make special memories that you keep for the rest of your life.

These are just a few suggestions of activities. You can think of more and be creative. The time you spend should be quality time.
